

GASOLINE

- Store for up to two years
- Treat with a stabilizer for longer life
- Store in a well ventilated place, but not in direct sunlight

DIESEL FUEL

- Store for 6 -12 months
- Treat with a stabilizer for longer life
- Store in a well ventilated place, but not in direct sunlight

KEROSENE

- Store in a different color container
Usually gas is red, kerosene is blue
- Store outdoors, but not in direct sunlight

BUTANE

- Can store indoors
out of the reach of children
- Withstands a lot of heat, but do not store in direct sunlight

PROPANE

- Do not store in a house or garage
- Store upright, and on a firm surface
- Don't store near anything flammable

CHARCOAL

- Can store inside your home, but never cook with charcoal indoors
- Keep it dry; try a bucket or bin

COAL

- Store indoors or outdoors
- Storing in bags or bins make it easier to carry to the stove

FIREWOOD

- Dry out the wood to encourage most of the bugs to leave the wood
- Store firewood outdoors at least 30 feet away from your house
- Use a tarp to keep it dry

MATCHES

- Store matches that are waterproof
- Dip them in paraffin to waterproof
- Keep dry; use baggies or a bucket
- Don't store in direct sunlight